Disturbance in Caldwell.

Colonel Wright, of Orange, as the contractor of the Lack Public Road Board for the extension of Bloomfield avenue to Caldwell. He has valuable machinery in the querries, and employs about 200 men, most of them Italians and Twenchmen. In order) changing them a few confs a day in order to in curvacy. reindorse himself for the construction of the houses and the material. Some of the On the Royal Bank of Ireland, Liverpool, London, Edsons of Italy objected to the payment of this about the Continens, for sale at the our customers will find them considerably below their rent, and for weeks past they were engaged in intimidating their brethren to join in a general strike. Some of the teamsters were stemed and forced to join the strikers, and knives were shown to those who refused to join the conspirators. The situation becoming grave the contractor decided to discharge about seventy-five of the worst characters. Fearing that they would destroy the valuable muchinery, he notified Sheriff Peckwell yesterday that he anticipated fronble. Sheriff Peckwell, Deputies Davis and Booth, accompanied by a posse of constables at once left for the scene of the trouble. the Sheriff notifying General Plume that if he could not squelch the disturbance he would notify him by telegraph that the military were needed. The Sheriff, bu arriving at the first station at Verona, found a nest of strikers. He at once took a few ringleaddischarge of a few pistols in the air cowed the sour looking Italians, who, on being inhad no objection to hang Italians or any other kind of people, expressed their willlibriless to pack up their traps at once and The the county.
